

Growing the Game through Social Media Engagement

StatusPro Consulting Project

Executive Summary

MARKET

Status Pro's NFL Pro Era is designed for passionate football fans and VR gaming enthusiasts seeking an immersive, first-person experience that lets them step onto the field and play as an NFL player in a groundbreaking virtual reality environment.

GOAL

Grow the game through increasing social media engagement, attracting new users, and driving game sales.

KEY STRATEGIES

To achieve these goals, we propose the following four recommendations:

POSTING FREQUENCY

CONTENT DIVERSITY

PLATFORM OPTIMIZATION

PARTNERSHIPS

Meet the Team

7 USC Marshall MBA students, bringing 30+ years of combined professional experience in consulting, project management, finance & investment banking, gaming, and the military.

Kevin Lu

Monica
Moorjani

Levi Kohl

Zara Elstein

Alex Saylor

Ian Hurlburt

Jonathan
Hermano

Target Audience

DEMOGRAPHIC

- Expanded focus of awareness campaign to casual sports and gaming fans:
 - US-based
 - Teenagers (aged 13 – 18)
 - Predominantly male
 - Experience with traditional gaming
- Additional benefits driving loyalty and interest to Status Pro's existing audience (intersection of passionate VR and Football fans)

APPROACH TO SOCIAL MEDIA, GAMING AND SPORTS

- Increasingly digitally connected (e.g., watch games via streamers or highlights on social media, c.40% of sports streamers use secondary devices to check social media while watching game)
- Seek social interaction and community in gaming (e.g., rise of Gorilla Tag), in sports (e.g., virtual tailgates, smack talk with friends), and in VR (e.g., 77% of VR users want more social engagement)
- Gen Z are passionate about sports with less loyalty to specific teams and more interest in athletes, influencers and gamers.

PARTNERS

In line with Meta and NFL's push to attract Gen Z audiences.

@easportsfc FC 25 News

- Posts nearly every day (≈5-6 posts/week).
- Posts about "team of the week," player stats, highlighting featured (real world) matches, monthly player interviews, lots of partnership posts
- Real world game promotions and partnerships with pro leagues lead to largest engagement
- Individual player focused posts also garner large engagement

@eamaddennfl

- Posts nearly every day (≈5-6 posts/week). Lots of fan and player interviews, team of the year designations, ultimate team updates, a few posts about actual game play, lots of partnership posts
- Posts directly from Madden often have highest engagement
- Shared posts allow Madden not to have to post as often while still adding content to their page
- Also connects to wider audience of people who might not already follow the Madden page

Case Study: @easportsfc (FIFA)

STRATEGIES

1. Weekly Team Of The Week (TOTW)
 - Weekly release updated info on who the current "best" players are (Or who had the best week) (693K posts)
2. September Launches
 - Annual game releases consistently spike engagement:
 - FC 24 (2023): rebranding campaign (263M impressions)
 - 100s of posts (w/ leagues, teams, players, Pepsi)
 - FIFA 23 (2022): Ted Lasso collab won Cannes Lion award
 - AFC Richmond brought into the game
3. Calendar Events
 - TOTY/TOTS promos using:
 - #TOTS (580K posts) → Occurs in May/June after each league ends
 - #TOTY (812K posts) → Occurs in December at year end
 - #Ballon D'or celebration → Occurs every November
 - World Cup content:
 - Messi's trophy post → 75M likes
 - Neymar's exit reaction (22.7M likes)
4. Real World Promotion
 - Highlight key matchups each week
 - Fan interviews/predictions
 - User content
 - Player & Coach interviews

Key Challenges & Opportunities

StatusPro faces 4 major challenges, but we believe there are opportunities for growth

CHALLENGES

- 1 Quality versus quantity balance
- 2 Player-made gameplay posting
- 3 Platform fragmentation
- 4 Small social media team

OPPORTUNITIES

- ➡ Increase collaborations and trend cycles
- ➡ In-game promotion of social media activity
- ➡ Emerging platforms & focus on differentiating accounts
- ➡ Partnerships with the NFL, players, and influencers

Opportunity #1: Increase collaborations and trend cycles

Challenge: Quality vs. quantity balance

- ⊗ How often should posts be going up?
- ⊗ How quickly do posts need to be up when focused on current/recent events?
- ⊗ Do posts need to all look professionally created?

Opportunity: Increase collaborations and trend cycles

- ✓ Utilize collaborative posts to increase quantity of post count
 - These can lead to accounts being pushed to a wider variety of audience
 - Also increase engagement type posts here where viewers respond/comment (helps both SP and influencer account)
 - Social media team (person) can build weekly or semi-weekly posts to highlight game features and company update
- ✓ Hop on recent events and current social media trends to improve awareness and visibility of account
 - Utilize trending hashtags or viral challenges
 - Create SP specific #s and challenges to drive user engagement around SP accounts
 - Utilize influencer collaboration or UGC to create content quickly (less focus on high quality)

Opportunity #2: In-game promotion of social media activity

Challenge: Player-made gameplay posting

- ⊗ Quality is often not very good from user made content
- ⊗ Currently no "benefits" from Status Pro for creating user made content

Opportunity: In-game promotion of social media activity

- ✓ Highlight user made content in the locker room (ie: allow players to watch other players game play within the game somewhere)
- ✓ Create "promotions/prizes/benefits" for having user content featured on SP or Pro Era channel
- ✓ Create live stream user content (eventually, if possible, to view from fan POV)
- ✓ Create collaborative engagement through community-driven voting system so users can vote on the best gameplay clips,
 - Creates a sense of ownership and involvement amongst players
- ✓ Create YouTube short tutorial content (either in-house or as a partnership) to improve users' ability to document their game play

Opportunity #3: Emerging platforms & focus on differentiating accounts

Challenge: Platform fragmentation

- ⊗ Multiple accounts across multiple platforms, what site is more important and where leads to highest user engagement?
- ⊗ How are the accounts differentiating themselves (Pro Era account vs. Status Pro account)?

Opportunity: Emerging platforms, focus on differentiating accounts

- ✓ Create a spectrum of different content to cater to target audiences across channels
- ✓ Re-purpose material across channels
- ✓ Translate greater engagement from specific channels like TikTok to in-game engagement

Suggested Content

	BEHIND-THE-SCENES	USER GENERATED CONTENT	INTERACTIVE POSTS	EDUCATIONAL TUTORIALS	COLLABORATIONS
Content	- Sneak peeks of upcoming game features (NFLPE) - Interviews with StatusPRO Team (SP)	- Gameplay sent in by users (NFLPE) - Top 10 user plays of the week / month compilations (NFLPE)	- Polls on Stories (NFLPE) - Founder / staff takeovers including Q&A (SP)	- Replicate successful QB camp series for defence and other game features (NFLPE)	- Partnerships with Athletes and Influencers including gameplay footage (NFLPE) - "Moments" player of the week (NFLPE)
Examples	 	 PLAYING THE NFL's NEW VIRTUAL REALITY GAME!!! (INSANE) 606K views • 4 months ago
Considerations	- Longer form high quality content on YouTube - Snippets on other platforms	- Overcomes "lower quality" bias using TikTok as a test-site	- Low cost but likely less effective in creating awareness	- Content discovery is crucial i.e. link across social media platforms and potentially in game	- Cost analysis required to determine if worthwhile

Tutorials & How-To Videos

Help players get better with game mechanics, strategy guides, and VR tips.

Opportunity #4: Partnerships with the NFL, players, and influencers

Challenge: Small social media team

- ⊗ Limited ability (time) to create new content
- ⊗ Limited variety in ideas
- ⊗ Limited variety in visual look
- ⊗ Limited ability to respond to and engage with players/followers on social media sites

Opportunity: Partnerships with the NFL, players, and influencers

- ✓ "Outsource" some of the creative cross-promotional work to NFL media team or to social media influencer (experienced in creating content and can create high quality content with variety)
- ✓ Much larger following (on NFL & large-scale influencer pages) so posts will be visible to more people
- ✓ More voices talking about the game can lead to new trends around the game
- ✓ Long term relationship building
- ✓ Community Growth: Regular influencer partnerships can help build a network of brand advocates who continuously promote products.
- ✓ Collaborative Campaigns: Long-term collaborations can evolve into co-created campaigns where influencers help shape a combined brand narrative and content strategy

Strategic Partnerships

NFL

The Check Down integration (highlight plays, athletes)

META

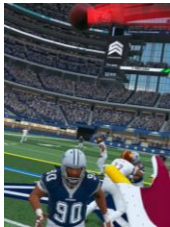

Leveraging Meta Quest partnerships can directly position NFL Pro Era in front of engaged VR audiences who are already interested in immersive gaming experiences. Meta actively promotes standout VR titles on its platform through featured store placements, in-app promotions, and dedicated marketing campaigns. By collaborating with Meta, Status Pro can increase visibility among a highly relevant audience and drive game downloads.

ATHLETES & INFLUENCERS

Lamar Jackson – As a high-profile NFL quarterback, his involvement adds credibility and excitement. Featuring him in gameplay clips, challenges, or behind-the-scenes content can draw in both football fans and gaming audiences.

Deestroying – A digital creator with a massive following in football and gaming, he excels at high-energy content like skill challenges, reaction videos, and live gameplay streams. His reach can introduce NFL Pro Era to younger, highly engaged fans who actively share and interact with content.

DISRUPTORS IN SPORTS

Authenticity & Trust – Athletes and sports influencers have built strong, loyal followings that trust their recommendations. Featuring NFL Pro Era through their channels makes the game feel more credible and organic.

Expanded Reach – Partnering with disruptors like Deestroying, who blend entertainment with skill-based football content, brings the game to a fresh, engaged audience beyond traditional gaming fans.

High Engagement Content – Influencers create viral, shareable content (challenges, reaction videos, live streams) that naturally drives more views, comments, and shares compared to standard brand posts.

Additional Strategic Partnerships

Mark Phillips
(RDCWorld1)

Known for his hilarious sports and gaming skits, Mark has a strong crossover audience of gamers and sports fans who would engage with NFL Pro Era content.

Kenny Beecham
(KOT4Q)

A basketball-focused creator but deeply immersed in sports gaming culture. His audience overlaps with those interested in immersive sports experiences.

MMG

A popular football gaming YouTuber with a dedicated audience that actively engages with NFL-related content, making him a great fit for cross-promotion.

Deestroying's Collaborators

Cam Wilder and Jesser: Frequent collaborators in football and sports gaming content who could bring added exposure through challenges and competitions.

Cassidy Hubbarth

ESPN host with strong digital presence, especially on Instagram and TikTok, who could help bring mainstream credibility and visibility to Status Pro.

Social Media Strategy

GROW THE GAME

TikTok: Growth potential, searchability optimization

- Utilize hashtags to strengthen presence in searches for "nfl vr", "football vr", "nfl game"
- Curate select posts to feature on official accounts

Instagram Reels: Gameplay from players (crowdsourced, can use # to create specific places for gameplay to be uploaded)

SHARE STORIES

YouTube Shorts: NFL priority, high-impact storytelling

- Script specific in-game plays to highlight game features
- Recreate top plays from past week/season
- Shorts of people trying out the game for the first time or scoring a touchdown in game for the first time etc.

Twitter / X: Declining but still capable of virality (Dan Orlovsky example)

- Engage with Dan's tweets about visualizer (repost/quote tweet)
- Tweet gameplay updates to keep followers informed (new features, new items)

BUILD COMMUNITY

Discord & Reddit:

Community engagement & organic discussions

- Create interactive events (tournaments, challenges) for core community
- Continue to build base with gamers and encourage interaction within community

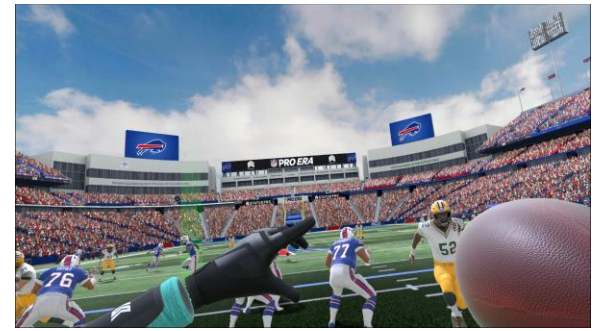

Goals

SHORT-TERM: 3-4 posts per week

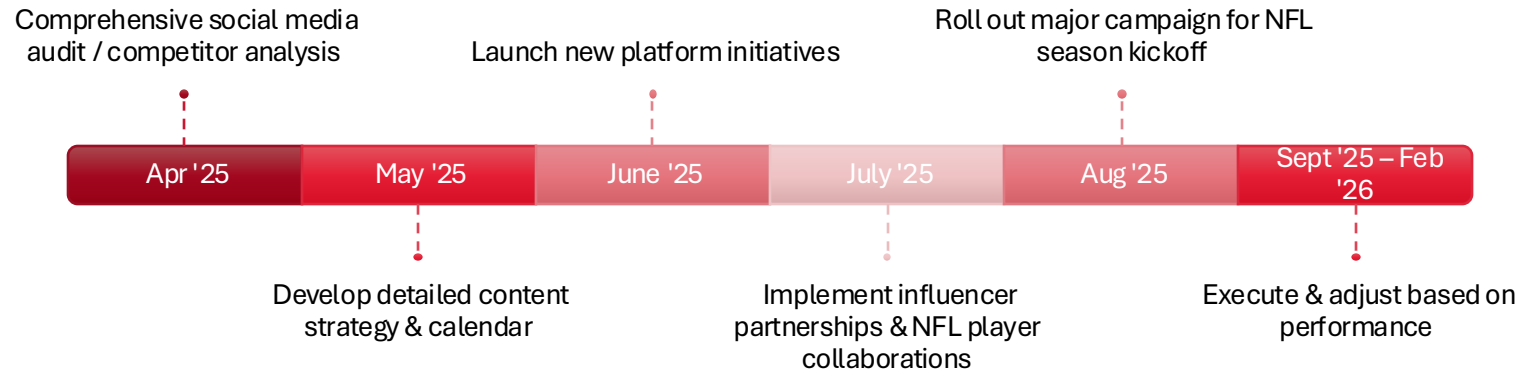

- Currently averaging 1-3 times/week but extremely inconsistent
- Solidify posting 3-4 times/week to increase your main audience's engagement & capture new followers/players

LONG-TERM: 5-7 posts per week (competitor benchmark)

- Need to up numbers and post DAILY at a minimum...see below competitors who post > 1 day
 - Sense arena (VR w/ hockey & tennis) has 32.5k followers v NFL Pro Era 6k
 - WIN Reality (VR w/ baseball) has 141k followers
- Use social media algorithm to advantage – post consistently so your content becomes more frequent in users' feeds
- Continuous content:
 - Showcase different aspects of the game
 - Gameplay features / educational content
 - Behind-the-scenes content / team interviews / sneak peeks
 - User praise
 - Short clips of user streaming
- Capitalize on the NFL Calendar
 - Draft day specials – new QBs being added to the game
 - Use the season kickoff as a campaign to launch a major social media push
 - Virtual Super Bowl Experience
- Target expansion market --> content to appeal more women, align goal/leverage NFL's goal to achieve 50% female audience

Action Plan & Next Steps

DEFINING SUCCESS METRICS

- Follower Growth: 50% increase across all platforms within 6 months
- Engagement Rate: Achieve 20% average engagement rate on posts
- Video Views: 1 million monthly views across all platforms
- User-Generated Content: 500 pieces of UGC shared monthly
- Conversion Rate: 2% click-through rate from social media to game download page
- Brand Mentions: 25% increase in positive brand mentions within 6 months
- Community Growth: 10,000 active members in official NFL Pro Era social media groups
- Influencer Impact: 5 million cumulative reach from influencer partnerships per quarter

Conclusion

- Current Social Media Landscape
- Four Opportunities for Growth
 1. Balancing quality v. quantity & leveraging trend cycles/collaborators
 2. Promoting user content to create a sense of involvement & ownership
 3. Segmenting Status Pro & NFL Pro Era accounts by content
 4. Growing the community through partnerships with the NFL, players, & influencers
- Goals: Short-Term & Long-Term
- Plan of Action/Next Steps & Success Metrics
 - ✓ Focusing on these areas will maximize impact with limited resources and position Status Pro for sustained growth.

Thank you for your consideration.
